

Using Images of Players - Parental Consent Form

Name of Player: _____

Date of Birth.....

We may take photographs of players in our matches. We may use these images in our clubs website or in other printed publications that we produce, as well as for any other sport/ youth publications we may work with. We may also make video or webcam recordings for similar reasons.

From time to time, our club may be visited by the media who will take photographs or film footage of training/ matches and festivals. Players will often appear in these images, which may appear in local or national newspapers, or on televised news programmes.

To comply with the Data Protection Act 1998, we need your permission before we can photograph or make any recordings of your child. If you object to , or are in agreement for , your child's image being used, please fill in this form and answer questions 1 to 4 below, then sign and date the form where shown. Please return the completed form to Mrs Alison Austin, Club Secretary, Isle of Wight Hockey Club.
